DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372. As an initial matter, it is noted that a "use" is not patentable subject matter in the United States. The "use" claims are interpreted as being drawn to methods of making a medicament.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- |           |  |
| Group I   | Claims 1-8 are drawn to a method for modulating at least one immune cell type in a patient suffering from neutropenia or at risk of developing neutropenia, comprising administering to the patient at least one S100 protein. |
| Group II  | Claims 9-13 are drawn to a method for reducing the risk of microbial infection in a patient comprising administering to the patient at least one S100 protein.   |
| Group III | Claims 14-22 are drawn to a method for manufacturing a medicament for modulating at least one immune cell type or reducing the risk of microbial infection in a patient comprising at least one S100 protein.                  |

Group IV      Claims 23-26 are drawn to a composition for use in modulating at least one immune cell type in a patient comprising at least one S100 protein.

The inventions listed as I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

According to PCT Rule 13.2, unity of invention exists only when the shared same or corresponding technical feature is a contribution over the prior art. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept because they lack the same or corresponding technical feature. The technical feature of claim 1 in Group I is a method for modulating at least one immune cell type in a patient suffering from neutropenia, or at risk of developing neutropenia, comprising administering to the patient at least one S100 protein, which is shown by Ryckman et al. (J. Immunol., 2003, Mar. 15, 170(6):3233-3242). Ryckman et al. teach that S100A8, S100A9, and S100A8/A9 are potent stimulators of neutrophils, and injection of the protein into a murine air pouch model led to rapid, transient accumulation of neutrophils in vivo (see Abstract) (note that the limitation "at risk of developing neutropenia" reads on any subject, including a subject without the disease). The teaching of Ryckman et al. meets the limitations of claim 1. Thus the technical feature of Group I lacks novelty or inventive step and does not make a contribution over the prior art.

Since the 1st claimed invention has no special technical feature, it cannot share a special technical feature with the other claimed inventions.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
